LIBRARIANS' DAY-2005

ADINET every year celebrates the birth anniversary of DR. S. R.Ranganathan (Father of Indian Library and Information Science) as Librarians'Day. This year ADINET will celebrate Librarians'Day on Saturday September 3, 2005.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

This year the Seminar is on 'Sharing of Resources for Libraries and Information Centres in India through Consortia'. The concept of resource sharing in Libraries and Information Centres is as old as the librarianship. Main objective of resource sharing is : Facilitating the sharing of resources in an efficient, timely and cost effective manner with maximum utilization of resources to meet the users information requirements and thereby to make overall improvements in LIS services. Some of the prominent areas of resource sharing which are widely practised and are of much relevance in present modern context are : (a) Union Catalogue (b) Collection Development (c) Consortia. Main theme of this seminar is on Sharing of resources through consortia. The aim of the consortia is to achieve what the members of the group cannot achieve individually. Libraries are forming consortia in order to share resources and to bring their combined purchasing power to negotiate advantageous terms for the supply of journals and other research literature. Major issues of consortia are (a) Selection of coordinating agency (b) Identification of LIC interested in consortia
